

Leadership for Corrections Professionals

Previously "Mid-Management Leadership Program"

Correctional Management Institute of Texas

PROGRAM INFORMATION

In an effort to assist agencies in professional development and succession planning by preparing personnel serving in mid-management to senior level positions for greater responsibility, the Correctional Management Institute of Texas offers a five-day (36-hour) Leadership for Corrections Professionals class for criminal justice professionals.

Leadership for Corrections Professionals is designed to equip participants with leadership tools/topics that are required for effective leaders. The program has been sculpted to capture the most current leadership focuses and core competencies as identified by the National Institute of Corrections. Furthermore, great effort has been made in seeking the input and guidance from field practitioners and leadership in determining program relevancy and its ability to meet and measure up to its intended design and purpose.

SCHEDULED TRAININGS

Located at the George J. Beto Criminal Justice Center at Sam Houston State University, the Correctional Management Institute of Texas will offer Leadership for Corrections Professionals on the following dates:

Program Dates	Location	Nomination Deadline
October 22 – 27, 2017	Huntsville, Texas	September 14, 2017
December 10 – 15, 2017	Huntsville, Texas	November 1, 2017
January 21 – 26, 2017	Huntsville, Texas	December 1, 2017

ELIGIBILITY

This training is designed for mid-level managers to senior level leaders from Texas juvenile and adult probation departments, adult and juvenile institutions, parole, and jail staff from Texas Sheriff's Offices.

Leadership for Corrections Professionals is not a conference or seminar where by everyone and anyone that applies will attend. This program is limited to 31 participants. Staff must be nominated by their Director/Sheriff and nomination forms and letters of support must be submitted by the deadline.

Directors/Sheriffs must nominate a staff who is currently promotable or possesses the potential to be promoted into a supervisory position of greater authority/responsibility. Agencies are limited to one nomination per class.

Please note, agency staff members that are two years from retiring from the agency are not eligible.

HOW WILL NOMINEES BE SELECTED TO ATTEND?

CMIT will consider a variety of diversity issues in selecting participants. The Institute will review nominations and select qualified participants that represent a diverse selection of regions and agencies. Substitutions are not permitted once the selection has been made.

GUIDELINES

Step 1 – Nomination: By the deadline of the designated class, nominations must be signed by the nominee's Director/Sheriffs and submitted, along with a letter of support providing information on the nominee and how this class will benefit him/her as well as your agency or department. Agencies are limited to one nomination per class. If your nominee is not selected, the nomination is not transferable towards a future class (a new nomination is required).

Step 2 – Registration: Accepted nominees will receive a letter of acceptance and will be provided a link to register. Nominators (Director/ Sheriff) of those staff who are not accepted, will be notified.

AGENCY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Be prepared to allow the nominee to be present for the entirety of the program, beginning with the first session at 8:00 AM Monday morning and last session concluding at 12:00 PM on Friday;
- Provide transportation or make arrangements to reimburse the nominee for round trip mileage between duty site and Huntsville. Agencies are responsible for travel, hotel and parking expenses.

PARTICIPANT RESPONSIBILITIES

- Respond to the letter of acceptance by registering online by the due date provided within the letter;
- Notify both CMIT and their Director/Sheriff if conflicts arise and are no longer able to attend;
- Be present for the entirety of the program;
- Actively participate in training activities; and
- Prepare an action plan to put into effect upon return to their agency.

INSTITUTE RESPONSIBILITIES

The Correctional Management Institute of Texas is responsible for providing:

- Accepted participants a letter of acceptance (via email);
- Directors/Sheriffs notification of decline (if nominee is not accepted);
- 36-hours of relevant training in an atmosphere conducive to learning;
- All training materials;
- Provide lunch and dinner for participants.
